

Rachael Brown – Governor Biography

I have been a parent governor since November 2022.

I have 1 child in reception and 2 other children that I'm hoping will attend Hingham primary within the next couple of years.

I did work in early years with additional training in SENCO, before having my own children and taking time away to be a mother.

I believe all children should feel happy within their time at school.